Much wider than a line is the second biennial installation of SITE Santa Fe's biennial series SITElines: New Perspectives on Art from the Americas. It features over thirty-five artists from across the Americas whose work examines or explores issues unique to our hemisphere. Curated by an international team comprised of Rocio Aranda-Alvarado, Kathleen Ash-Milby, Pip Day, Pablo León de la Barra, and Kiki Mazzucchelli, common themes include "recognition of colonial legacies, expressions of the vernacular, the influence of indigenous understandings, and our relationship to the land," as stated in the exhibition press release. The complexities
