

SFR Picks—Week of March 13

Operatic

Candida Hofer

OK, so the big gala's actually in July, but hear us when we say you've gotta get to SITE Santa Fe for the "soft" opening of Bel Canto: Contemporary Artists Explore Opera. It's part of months' worth of events in conjunction with the Santa Fe Opera and the Lensic, and finds numerous contemporary photographers, conceptual artists, filmmakers and art directors coming together to celebrate lesser-known aspects of opera, opera houses, international production and so much more. From what we've seen already, SITE is continuing its wild show-to-show transition like some sort of super museum. We do not tell half of what we know, for we fear we'd not be believed. Be there.
