

YOUNG CURATORS 2020-2021

PRIVATE EYE

Join us on a digital expedition in showcasing a new frontier of artwork.

We are in need of contemporary artwork, which covers the modern duel of public and private information. We are looking for artists to submit pieces about their own experiences concerning public information versus private information.

Artists may submit between 1 and 5 works of art. Submissions are open to all media, including (but not limited to), written art, performance art, video, sculpture, and mixed media. Each individual file must be smaller than 100 MB. Images must be at least 72 dpi.

Selected artwork will be featured online in an entirely virtual exhibition.

Interested applicants should apply online at:

https://docs.google.com/forms/d/e/1FAIpQLSdrP6ByaDJUal4QzRtUsKy761An0Eq_fqq7D2LPhhFwJn0wiQ/viewform?usp=sf_link

Artists selected for this opportunity will be interviewed by the Young Curators for additional insight into the public and private nature of being an artist. Interviews will be conducted remotely.

Applications due by 11:59 PM MST December 5th, 2020.
